We were thrilled to recognize Tanya Johnson of Trademarked Fitness Studio as the evening's winner and present her with this prestigious award.

Tanya, a first-generation Caribbean American, holds double master's degrees in marketing and management. She is also a tenured professor at Kingsborough Community College of CUNY. After experiencing a devastating loss in her family and confronting the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, Tanya decided to take control of her life. She turned to fitness and began offering online Zumba classes, which fostered a wonderful community during a difficult time. In 2023, Tanya successfully launched her in-person facility, Trademarked Fitness Studio, where she helps individuals achieve their fitness goals in a truly supportive, non-judgmental, and family-like atmosphere. We were honored to congratulate her on winning the 2025 Woman in Business Award.

Honoring Northampton County Centenarians

By Rep. Ann Flood

NORTHAMPTON COUNTY - The 11th Annual Centenarian Luncheon was a wonderful opportunity to honor Northampton County residents who are at least 100 years old or turning 100 this year.

This year's 138th District centenarians, Theresa Barczynski, Dorothea Butler, Lorraine Casagrande, Jean Dunham, Dorothy LeClair, Anna Meck, Marie Todd and Barney Zmoda, have made lasting contributions to our communities.

My legislative aide, Lisa, attended on my behalf to honor these inspiring residents. Thanks to the Northampton County Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council for sponsoring this special event.
