a WILD week IN REVIEW

I'm so happy to be back at home in the district, spending this Thanksgiving with friends and family. And while I've been home, it's been wonderful as always to spend time with members of our community. On Wednesday, I had the pleasure of attending the LifePath Annual Thanksgiving Luncheon. I am so proud of the incredible work LifePath is doing to support members of our community, and I'm glad I was able to join them for this wonderful event.

This week, I also had the opportunity to sit down with PBS 39 to talk about prescription drug costs, as part of one of their monthly Community Conversations. As you may know, lowering the cost of lifesaving medication is one of my main priorities in Congress. I've heard time and time again from members of our community about the impact of high prescription drug prices. I'm proud of recent wins we've had to lower drug costs – like the Inflation Reduction Act, which allows Medicare to negotiate drug prices and caps the cost of insulin at $35 a month for Medicare recipients – but I know there is still work to be done. For the full conversation, be sure to tune in to PBS 39 on November 30.

Finally, tomorrow is Small Business Saturday! Our small businesses help make the Greater Lehigh Valley the vibrant, joyful community we all know and love. However you celebrate this holiday season, please join me in supporting our incredible small businesses!

Rep. Wild Attends Screening of Student Directed Film, Friend

Last weekend, I was thrilled to attend a screening of Friend at the Emmaus Theatre. Written and directed by Salisbury High School senior, Charlie Morton, Friend explores the mental health struggles of everyday Americans. I am so proud of the work Charlie put into this film, including a four-month filming process that involved over 160 students, faculty, and administrators. I'm so impressed by Charlie's commitment, creativity, & determination to make a difference. It's work like this that goes far in shining a light on mental health and making sure everyone knows that help is out there.

TO DISCUSS MENTAL HEALTH

CONGRESSWOMAN SUSAN WILD

Rep. Wild Joins Good Morning Lehigh Valley to Discuss Mental Health

Working to improve access to mental health resources and destigmatize mental health is deeply important to me. I've fought to bring federal funds back to the Greater Lehigh Valley to support mental health resources in our community. Just this year, I was thrilled to announce over $197,000 in federal funding for Pine Brook Family Answers.

While I'm so proud of the work that has been done so far to support those struggling with mental health in our community, I believe there is much more to do. This week, I joined Brad Osborne and State Rep. Mike Schlossberg on Good Morning Lehigh Valley to discuss the mental health crisis our country is facing, how we can reduce the stigma, and what work can be done to improve access to mental health resources. Conversations like these go a long way. Please know, this fight is close to my heart, and I will never give it up.
