Beware of Holiday Scams

By Rep. Joe Emrick

BETHLEHEM - The Office of Attorney General is once again warning us all about common scams that typically ramp up during the holiday season.

These include email and text phishing, in which you receive an email or text message directing you to enter personal information on a fraudulent website; home delivery stealing; credit card skimming; romance scams; online pet scams; online pop-up advertisements; and online marketplace deals. Read more about each of these scams here.

Anyone who believes they may have been scammed should file a police report, and file a complaint with the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General online here, or by emailing scams@attorneygeneral.gov or calling 1-800-441-2555.
