

Kindness Goes Full Circle: Full Circle Removal's Sponsorship Drive Feeds 500 Families

By Shantelle Davis

SCIOTA, PA – Full Circle Removal is proud to announce the success of its 4th Annual Kindness Goes Full Circle Food Sponsorship Drive, which concluded on Monday, November 25th, raising over $10,000 to provide Thanksgiving meals to 500 families, equating to more than 2,000 people in need.

This event was made possible by the generosity of local businesses, sponsors, and volunteers, highlighting the power of community collaboration. "We're so thankful to everyone who helped make this year's drive a success," said Brian Davis, Co-Owner of Full Circle Removal. "The support we received shows that kindness really does come full circle, and we're proud to be part of such an amazing effort."

Key partners included Christian Life Assembly for their volunteer efforts, Kingsley's ShopRite in Brodheadsville for seamless food orders and pickups, and many other local businesses and sponsors who contributed to the success.

Looking ahead, Full Circle Removal is planning to establish an endowment fund in partnership with the Community Foundation of Monroe County to ensure the long-term growth and sustainability of the Kindness Goes Full Circle initiative. "Never underestimate the power of a simple act of kindness," added Davis. "We hope to create a lasting legacy of compassion with the support of the Community Foundation."

A group of riders organized by the brother of Nicholas, Frank Paone held their 3rd annual Ride/Benefit to raise money for charity in the name of Nicholas.

he loved" said Paone. "The money we raised at the event $3883 will go to the Slate Belt Veterans Assoc. to help build a 32 unit housing complex for disabled veterans" said Paone.

Toni Lynch treasure of SBVA accepted the check from Paone and thanked the Paone and group for the donation. The event was well attended with about 35 bikes that took the ride around the back roads of the Slate Belt then ended at Riverton Ball Field in Bangor for the 'pig roast', Music, bounce house for kids and 50/50 raffle.
