

Habitat for Humanity

Thanks to NORWESCAP's partnership and that of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, PNC Bank, Provident Bank, and Valley Bank, the build was completed flawlessly. The home was Warren County Habitat's third modular build as well, and it could not have happened as smoothly or as timely as it did without the support of Phoenix Modular.

The energy was high at the Werkheiser family's Home Dedication, but no one was bursting with excitement quite like Coltin, Lincoln, and Jacob Jr. In the same vein as Mark Valli's comment, Cara Vega, Family Support Chairwoman, shared, "The boys are very excited to have a bit more space, [and] the yard they've already been running around in." Seeing them chase each other, dance humorously on their front porch, and run around their new yard painted a perfect picture of the joy and hope that homeownership brings.

Jacob's boys excitedly dance "on stage", aka their brand new front porch, as Cara Vega, Warren County Habitat Family Support Chairwoman, talks about Jacob's journey to homeownership.

The Warren County Habitat and NORWESCAP teams proudly smile for a photo with Jacob and his boys.
