

Fifty Years of Community Service Honored by GFWC Bangor Womens Club

By Marilyn Mehas

BANGOR - The General Federation of Woman's Club of Bangor, PA honored Dottie Sawyer of Effort for her fifty years of community service with a pin from the General Federation in Washington DC. At the clubs September meeting, Diane Lovelace, Membership Chair did the honors.

Following the regular club meeting and all club members who also received pins for five, ten, fifteen, twenty, and twenty-five years of service, refreshments were served, and social hour continued.

The GFWC Bangor Womens Club was organized in 1913 and joined the federation in 1916. For 105 years the club members have donated monies to their local library, gave scholarships to local high school graduates, are very active in Legislation Issues in Pennsylvania, donate to Meals on Wheels and many more community organizations. All money raised is from the projects the club members do all year.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs is the largest non-profit volunteer organization in the world. There are local clubs, county, district, state, and international clubs.

The ladies are prepared to continue with their work for many years to come.
