

A Successful Concealed Carry Seminar in Stockertown

By State Rep. Ann Flood

Firearm safety and understanding Pennsylvania's concealed carry laws are vital for protecting our families and communities. That was the focus of my Concealed Carry Seminar Thursday night at the Stockertown Rod and Gun Club.

It was a packed event, with nearly 100 residents hearing from experts in law enforcement and public safety, including Northampton County District Attorney Stephen Baratta, Lt. Richard Webb of the Lehigh County Sheriff's Office, State Game Warden David Furman and Trooper Ryan Seiple of the Pennsylvania State Police.

I appreciate everyone who came out to participate and thank the Stockertown Rod and Gun Club for hosting this important conversation!

Applications Open for Youth Camp

By State Rep. Ann Flood

The Pennsylvania State Police (PSP), in collaboration with the Pennsylvania National Guard and American Legion, is seeking applicants for its annual youth camp. The Elmer Hafer-American Legion-State Police-National Guard Youth Camp will be held June 7-13, at Messiah University in Mechanicsburg, Cumberland County.

The six-day program is for teenagers ages 15-17 who are interested in exploring careers in Pennsylvania law enforcement or the military. Cadets will take part in a wide range of hands-on learning experiences and physical fitness training designed to build their understanding of law enforcement, as well as their confidence, teamwork and leadership abilities.

Applicants must be 15-17 years old at the start of the camp. Candidates should be physically fit, in good health and maintain a strong academic record. Cadets are sponsored by local American Legion posts, so there is no cost to participate.

More information is available at pa-legion.com, where applicants also can access the online application https://links.pahousenews.com/q/cdLkkk0QnF0XEKXMCuUM\_edHvpW6FkvqgLdZcOJYnZ0aW1lc0ByY24uY29tw4gG5-i4EJ1eLRILDohPj3Kq2hqdpA.

Searching for Scholarships and Affording the Balance

There are many ways to pay for higher education, and an important step is searching and applying for scholarships. The more free money you can earn means less money you have to pay back. The presentation will cover types of scholarships available, tips for creating scholarship resumes, and briefly discuss how you can pay for the balance after all your free money is taken into consideration. The presentation will include several resources, including current scholarship opportunities, join members of the private lending team to learn more.
