Slater Standout of the Month Award

Julie Mignosi

Julie Howell

December Professional Staff Award Recipient

Julie Mignosi

Julie demonstrates a positive and welcoming attitude that fosters a learning environment which emphasizes "excellence today, success tomorrow along with a consistent willingness to assist students and staff. She acts as a "team player" while fulfilling her responsibilities while displaying outstanding performance pertaining to her job-related responsibilities. Julie performs all job expectations while also going "above and beyond."

Julie Mignosi has been a 2nd grade teacher ever since she began her teaching career at Bangor Area School District. Over the course of her teaching tenure, Julie has been a positive and supportive role model for her students, mentored first year teachers, served with unrelenting dedication on countless school committees, and worked tirelessly to ensure student success both inside and outside of her classroom. Julie is always willing to share ideas and resources with her colleagues and help in any capacity that is needed at the time.

Julie enthusiastically welcomes her students each day to her classroom and creates a learning environment that fosters student success on both an academic and personal level. Julie fully invests herself daily to make sure each student achieves their fullest potential and their individual learning needs are being met. Julie is the epitome of a dedicated teacher and an outstanding role model for the youth of our Slater community.

Julie is very humble and does not acknowledge how great and influential she truly is.

December Support Staff Award Recipient

Dena Mulitsch

Dena Mulitsch is an excellent employee who is always willing to assist others with whatever they may need. She acts as a team player who always fulfills her responsibilities with outstanding performance; going above and beyond in all facets of these duties. As head custodians, Dena is called upon frequently to assist the team to which she accommodates any request immediately. It is this willingness to be a team player and always assist others that allows everyone to complete their jobs successfully throughout the day especially as we continue to navigate through the ongoing pandemic. She is one of those "behind the scenes" employees that allows the district to run smoothly on a day-to-day basis.
