Greater Lehigh Valley Auto Dealers 2022 Auto Show

By GLVAD

LEHIGH VALLEY, Pa. - The Greater Lehigh Valley Auto Dealers Association today announced models previewing at the 2022 Lehigh Valley Auto Show.

The show will again be held at Lehigh University's Goodman Campus. It will feature 125,000 sq. ft. of new cars, trucks, crossovers, SUVs, trucks and motorcycles in three venues: Stabler Athletic and Convocation Center, Rauch Fieldhouse and Goodman Hall. In accordance with Lehigh University's safety guidelines, masks must be worn at all times while at the show.

For the first time, the show will be a five-day event and all sales will be online only. There will be no physical tickets and no cash will be accepted. The Lehigh University ticket office will not be open. Online show costs are $12 for adults, $10 for seniors (55 +), $8 for children (6-14), and $30 for a family four-pack. Children five and under receive free admission. Tickets may be purchased online at glvada.org.

Hours have been expanded and the Wednesday evening preview fundraising gala will not be held to accommodate more people safely for regular ticket sales. This year the auto show will be open from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, and from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Thursday through Saturday. Sunday's hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Parking is free.

The show has not been held since 2020, and will feature many exciting changes in the industry since then.

The chair of this year's auto show is Keith Muir, vice president of Star Buick GMC. Muir and Tom Kwiatk, executive director of the Greater Lehigh Valley Auto Dealers Association, spoke at the press conference.

Muir credited Tom Daub, president of the Greater Lehigh Valley Auto Dealers, with steering the association through a challenging time. He noted that this was the 23rd year for the show and that it was good to be back in person.

WALDEN III

Senior Living Community

Mom is happy and I finally have some peace of mind!

We were at an impasse. We wanted Mom to consider Personal Care but she was dead set against it. She can manage just fine, she insisted. I love her dearly but worry constantly. She reluctantly agreed to visit Walden III and they suggested a compromise. Independent Living! She gets to retain her independence and her dog and I enjoy the comfort and security knowing that help is always on hand.
