

Slate Belt History From The Archives of Donald Jones

Exclusively in the Blue Valley Times

This Homefront Plaque Is On A Granite Stone In Founder's Park. It Tells The Story About A Magazine Like No Other In The Country. Howie Strunk and His Wife Mona Received Countless Mail From Bangor Boys Serving Overseas. They Published A Magazine With The Letters Which Became The Famous "Homefront". It Was Mailed To Slate Belt Soldiers Serving Overseas, locating Their Locations When Possible. I For One Am Still Singing Its Praises. You Had To Be On the Receiving End To Really Know It's Tremendous Value. I Received It In Europe And The Pacific. Chip Turtzo, local Realtor And Past Veteran, Has Kept The Home Front Story Alive For The Past Many Years. A Strong Reminder Is This Granite Marker In Founder's Park Which Keeps This Wonderful History Alive. A Thousand Thank Yous Chip For One Of The Lasting Stories Of World War Two And To Judy Thomasse Who Answered The Call And Served Their Country.
