The Show Must Go On!

By Kaylie Kirkham, a junior student at Nazareth High School
NAZARETH - An empty marquee rests unlit in front of a dark empty theater. No music seeps through the doors, no flashing lights draw the attention passerbys. No line of a hundred people eager to watch a performance. For Nazareth Area High School (NAHS), the theater program had gone dark.

As we know, COVID-19 hit theater programs across the nation hard. To add to the predicament, NASH's theater director, John Andreadis, resigned September of 2021, just as the theater program was starting to wake again. Everybody was shocked. The cast had already auditioned for roles and the fall production was well underway. To everyone's dismay, the theater went dark. Again.

But as the popular saying goes, "The show must go on!" NAHS principal, Alan Davis, wasted no time in starting the search for a new applicant. By late October, all of the applications were in.

Faith Christian Partners With Bearing Precious Seed Ministry To Send God's Word To Ukraine

By Ginny Jensen / Admissions Director
ROSETO - This is accomplished by taking the printed pages, of the books of John and Romans from the Bible, and collating it, folding the covers, putting the Scripture in the cover, stapling it, cutting the book and boxing them for distribution. Since 2008, Faith Christian students have produced 319,400 Bibles for countries around the world. This year, the students will volunteer for three days, April 12, 13 & 14, to produce 25,000 bibles for the country of Ukraine. You can learn more about Bearing Precious Seed at www.BPSMilford.org and more about Faith Christian School at www.fcslions.org.

Faith Christian School, K-12 grades, has been serving the Christian communities of the Pocono Mountains, Slate Belt, eastern New Jersey, and the Lehigh Valley areas for 42 years. Children from ten school districts
