

Students Take 'Earth Day' to a Higher Level

By Senator Mario Scavello

LOWER NAZARETH - As we look ahead to Earth Day on April 22, I want to share an encouraging story about some local students in Lower Nazareth who took matters into their own hands to help clean up litter in their local community.

Allana and her friends were together recently celebrating her 10th birthday and decided to go for a walk in their neighborhood. While on their walk they were bothered by all the trash they saw. They decided to begin picking it up and returned home for more trash bags.

Another girl from the neighborhood joined and brought snacks. A different girl came by riding her bike and joined as well. By the end of the walk, these five girls had picked up bags of trash, old construction materials, paint cans, a tire, and even the broken tread from a bulldozer.

These young ladies serve as an outstanding example for all, both young and old. They showed no hesitation in getting their hands dirty to make their neighborhood a more beautiful place. You can be part of that effort too – and there are plenty of opportunities coming up to join groups from around the region in picking litter, adopting highways and urging others to do the same.

Historic Cultural Assets Plan

By Becky Bartlet

EASTON - Lamont McClure and the Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED), in partnership with the Lehigh Valley Planning Commission (LVPC) and Heritage Strategies, are preparing a countywide Historic and Cultural Assets Plan. The plan will address how historic buildings, communities and landscapes can strengthen our identity, economic prosperity, and well-being.

A series of stakeholder workshops will be held by the project team seeking input on local priorities.

This input will be crucial to crafting a plan that reflects community interests, responds to existing conditions and can be implemented at the local level.

Workshop dates and locations: Tuesday, April 23, 2019 from 6:30-8:30PM at Weona Park: 25 S. Main Street, Pen Argyl, PA 18072

Wednesday, April 24, 2019 from 1:30-3:30 PM at the Northampton County Human Services Building: 2801 Emrick Blvd., Bethlehem, PA 18020

Wednesday, May 8, 2019 from 5:30-7:30 PM at the Northampton County Human Services Building: 2801 Emrick Blvd., Bethlehem, PA 18020

Thursday, May 9, 2019 from 5:30-7:30 PM at the Northampton County Human Services Building: 2801 Emrick Blvd., Bethlehem, PA 18020. This fourth and final meeting will focus on urban contexts.

Registration is recommended. Please RSVP with Bethany Vazquez, Program Associate with LVPC at bvazquez@LVPC.org and indicate the meeting you plan to attend. If you are unable to attend, please provide Ms. Vazquez with your email address so she can provide you with updates on the plan and notices regarding future workshops.
