

PENNDOT Wants To Hear From You

By Becky Bradley

ALLENTOWN - Concerns about traffic? Want to see more hiking and biking trails? Or maybe you have some ideas about how to make our transportation system better. Here's your chance to be heard by the State Transportation Commission.

The Pennsylvania State Transportation Commission is conducting a statewide survey to get input on Pennsylvania's 12-year Transportation Program. Your responses can be submitted via online survey at <http://survey.talkpatransportation.com/#/Survey>

The survey closes April 26, 2019. The collected data is shared with counties and local transportation planning partners for evaluation and consideration in their planning documents.

We need to set aside our ego and realize that we are seed planters, not the cultivators of growth. For some people change comes slowly. As a seed planter, you must realize that no matter how much light and nourishment you provide, sometimes your client won't flourish until they are ready. Have faith that you have an impact, even if it is not apparent. I want to leave you with these words: Be tenacious, advocate for your clients, be ethical, have compassion with boundaries and surround yourself with people who build you up.

In 2005 Jana Morris, set out on a life changing path and started Recovery Revolution in Bangor, PA. Recovery Revolution is a charitable licensed not for profit 501(c) 3 dedicated to providing addictions treatment in the Slate Belt Community. Ms. Morris and the staff at Recovery Revolution believe in a client focused approach and have built programs responsive to the needs of the community. Recovery Revolution's vision was to create a safe and loving environment, where decisions were based on the need of the client rather than the depth of their pockets. Recovery Revolution started out with a staff of 2 that provided 2 services and now there are 12 employees and we provide 17 different services.
