Hunter Zeman Earns Eagle Scout Rank

By State Rep. Ann Flood

I was pleased to attend a Court of Honor ceremony recognizing Hunter Zeman as he earned the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest achievement in Scouting America, and I had the honor of presenting him with an official House citation.

Hunter, a member of Troop 41 in Johnsonville, earned Scouting America's highest rank through years of leadership, service and dedication. For his Eagle project, he constructed 14 owl boxes for the Cherry Valley National Wildlife Refuge and installed informational placards to support wildlife education. He is currently a senior at Northampton Area High School and will attend East Stroudsburg University in the fall.

Wishing a sincere congratulations to Hunter on this outstanding achievement and for exemplifying the values of Scouting America!
