Eagle Scout Court of Honor for Andrew Kondisko and Jack Scherer

By Michael Ortoski

WIND GAP - Troop 34 held their Eagle court honor for two of their scouts, Andrew Kondisko and Jack Scherer on Saturday at Wind Gap Fire Hall. Opening Ceremony was given by Mark MacLeod and Mason Beers and the invocation was given by Jayden Goss.

The 'Trail to Eagle was given by members of the troop. After each member spoke a candle was lit for that step completed.

Presentation of the eagle pin and palm was given by Bubba Beers and Wes Shoup.

Eagle Scouts Andrew Kondisko and Jack Scherer presented parent and mentor pins.

Our new state rep. in our district Ann Flood was present to honor the two Eagle Scouts with citations from both the House and the Senate.

Pen Argyl High School College Signing Day

By Zoe Edmonds

PEN ARGYL - This year we have 7 seniors committed to play a sport in college.

Morgan is the daughter of Julie Berger and Wayne Rissmiller. Morgan plays Varsity Softball for the Green Knights, under the coaching of Bill Schankel. Her high school accomplishments include being a four-year varsity softball letter award recipient, and recognition multiple years in The Morning Call as a Colonial League Softball Impact Player.

Morgan's high school statistic is a cumulative .421 batting average.

Morgan plans to continue her softball career at Northampton Community college under the coaching of Rick Willmott next fall.
