

Bangor Slaters VS Pen Argyl Green Knights Rivalry Game

By Michael Ortoski

PEN ARGYL & BANGOR - On Monday The Slaters and the Green Knights had to play a double header to end the regular season because of so many cancellations due to weather. Since it's a rivalry game each school got to play in front of their own home town crowd.

First Slaters traveled to Pen Argyl (3:00 game) on a day of beautiful weather conditions but to bad Green Knights didn't bring their A game.

It was a rough go in the first inning, I got there 10 minutes late to find Slaters had already scored 4 runs. I didn't get any better, the runs came around like the Pen Argyl WEONA park carousal and there were back to back home run triples. The score ended in a mercy rule by the umpire 18-0.

And now everybody had to pack up and drive over to Bangor park to do it all over again. Fortunately Green Knights played some what better keeping it from the mercy rule, barley. The Slaters won the game 13-3.
