

Time Capsule Buried In Bangor

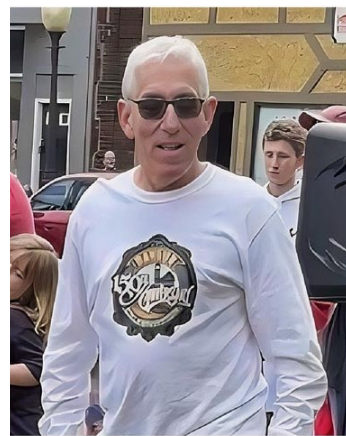

By Michael Ortoski

BANGOR, Pa. - Bangor borough in Northampton County is preserving its present. They buried A time capsule at Bethel Park in Bangor. It was painted Slater colors of maroon and white with images of the borough printed on the lid.

Kids who were at the event were encouraged to grab a shovel and put in a scoop of dirt to fill in the hole where the capsule was buried. The capsule will be opened in 2075.

Jane Hill-Rosato

Nicholas Rosato

Melissa Hough

John Brown with his grandson

Janet Miller shovels soil on the 2075 Time Capsule much the same as her late husband and Mayor, Duane, did in 1975.

Pastor Nick Melazzo

Graduating Indiana University Of Pa. Student Reia Sanchez Records Perfect 4.0 Grade Point Average.

By IUP

INDIANA, Pa. – Indiana University of Pennsylvania will honor 1,452 graduates during commencement ceremonies on May 9, including a student from Northampton County graduating with a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

Reia Sanchez, a sociology with a psychology minor and Spanish dual major graduate from Northampton, has completed her studies with a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

Daughter of Jamie and Brett Snellman, she is a 2022 graduate of Northampton Area High School. She was a Promising Scholar, received the IUP Sutton Scholarship, and was selected for membership in Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Society and Sigma Delta Pi national collegiate Hispanic honor society. She is on the ministry team of the Reformed University Fellowship, is an IUP Crimson Tour Guide, and was an exchange student through the IUP and Valladolid exchange program. Her research project was selected for the 2026 Scholars Forum College of Education and Human Services Dean's Award. She was selected for the 2025-2026 Justice Research Fellows program.

IUP will hold three ceremonies, all at the Kovalchick Convention and Athletic Complex.

Graduates from the College of Education and Human Services and the Eberly College of Business will receive degrees at the 8:30 a.m. ceremony; graduates from the College of Health Sciences and University College will receive degrees at the 1 p.m. ceremony; and graduates from the College of Arts, Humanities, Media, and Public Affai

All three ceremonies will be livestreamed on the IUP YouTube channel. Students completing requirements for graduation in May and August are eligible to participate in the May ceremonies. Tickets are required for the ceremonies.

A total of 1,062 students will receive bachelor's degrees, 304 students will receive master's degrees, 66 students will receive doctoral degrees, and 10 students will receive associate degrees.

A total of 37 undergraduates are completing t

Since its founding in 1875, IUP has evolved from a teacher-training institution into a doctoral research university recognized for its commitment to student success and achievement. As IUP celebrates its 150th anniversary during the 2025-2026 academic year and through the Impact 150 comprehensive campaign, the university honors a legacy of educational excellence while looking to its next 150 years of student success, innovation, leadership in healthcare education, and public service.

