Congratulations, Jacobsburg Historical Society!

Rep. Ann Flood

NAZARETH - Last week, I joined the Boulton Historic Site and Jacobsburg Historical Society for its 50th anniversary celebration!

When I was younger, my father often took me to tour the Jacobsburg house and museum. It was so special to be back presenting the historical society a House citation years later.

Congratulations to these men and women who work so diligently to keep this museum going.

Girl Scout Award Ceremony

Rep. Ann Flood

NAZARETH - I also had the privilege of attending a Girl Scout award ceremony at Dryland United Church of Christ in Nazareth.

These girls earned bronze and silver awards for various community projects, while Molly Neidig was the sole recipient of the gold award for creating volunteer training videos for Equi-librium, which is a non-profit equine-assisted therapy program for individuals with musculoskeletal and sensory disorders. Six of these girls were also recognized at the ceremony for their many years in Girl Scouts and will also soon be graduating high school.

Join me in congratulating these young ladies on their hard work!
