Larry Rice, Jr. Appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at IRCO Community Federal Credit Union

By Karen Robinson

PHILLIPSBURG N.J. - Larry Rice, Jr. has been appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at IRCO Community Federal Credit Union (IRCO). As Executive Vice President Rice will have an integral role of the IRCO Executive Leadership Team, also continuing in his role of overseeing the lending portfolio.

Larry Rice, Jr. has greatly impacted IRCO's evolving strategy including partnerships since joining the company in August of 2020. "We have quickly benefited from his contributions to the overall operations of the loan department and his implementation of protocols and best practices which have improved efficiency across IRCO" said Tracey Smith, President & CEO of IRCO Community Federal Credit Union. "Larry brings a wealth of experience from his 30 plus years in the financial services industry. His experience extends across all business lines. He continues to bring a wide range of skill sets that will further be utilized across all departments."

Prior to IRCO Community Federal Credit Union, Larry Rice, Jr. held a top leadership role with Merchants Bank of Bangor and is involved in various community activities.
