Valley Youth House Receives $6,000 Donation from BB&T for Charity Challenge

David White

BETHLEHEM, PA (5/22/19) - Five independent nonprofits throughout the Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania, received donations from BB&T totaling $25,000 this month as part of the company's first Lehigh Valley Charity Challenge.

The Lehigh Valley Charity Challenge was run on social media during March 2019. BB&T Community Development/CRA/Fair Credit Lending Officer David Grow, with help from the Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce, identified five small charities that are helping those less-fortunate with emphasis on children and women. Lehigh Valley residents were encouraged to vote via social media for their favorite charity. A total donation of $25,000 was then awarded based on how each charity finished in the voting, with the dollars split as follows:

First Place	Community Services for Children	$7,000
Second Place	Valley Youth House	$6,000
Third Place	My Sister's Closet	$5,000
Fourth Place	Mary's Shelter/Cay Galgon Center	$4,000
Fifth Place	Miracle League of the Lehigh Valley	$3,000

"BB&T is committed to strengthening the communities we serve and supporting organizations that focus on helping less-fortunate women and children is just one of the ways we do that," said BB&T Greater Lehigh Valley Market President Lewis Cyr. "BB&T is proud to encourage the important work of these organizations."
