

Kyle Busch Reveals Coca-Cola 600 Tribute to Pen Argyl Army National Guard Specialist Derek Holland

By Heavy on NASCAR

The Coca-Cola 600 takes place on Sunday, May 30, providing NASCAR drivers with the opportunity to honor military members that gave their lives in the line of duty. Kyle Busch is among this group, and he will bring back the red, white, and blue No. 18 M&M'S scheme. He will drive the 600 Miles of Remembrance while honoring Pennsylvania Army National Guard Specialist Derek Holland.

A Mars Wrigley Associate, Chad Ace, nominated Holland as the Coca-Cola 600 approached. Ace served with Holland in Afghanistan. According to a press release from Mars Wrigley, Holland had a reputation for being a dedicated soldier with a great sense of humor and willingness to help others regardless of the circumstance.

According to Military Times, Specialist Holland served in the Pennsylvania Army National Guard from 2006 to 2008. He tragically lost his life to a roadside bomb in Afghanistan. The bomb struck Holland's Humvee near the town of Zormat and killed an Air Force major serving with the Provincial Reconstruction Team. The bomb also wounded the vehicle's gunner.
