Faith Christian School Graduating Class of 2021

By Mrs. Jensen

ROSETO - Valedictorian, Ryan James McMahon, the son of James and Rhonda McMahon of Easton, PA. He began attending Faith Christian School in grade nine after attending Bethlehem Christian School for his previous education. Ryan has played basketball for Faith Christian's varsity team for two years, serving as captain his senior year. Also an avid soccer player, he participated all four years of high school serving as a co-captain in eleventh grade. Active in student government, he was elected as class president during his junior and senior years of high school and president of the student council during his senior year. He enjoys organizing school activities and he loves spending time with his friends and family. His favorite Bible passage is James 1:2-8. In the fall, he plans on attending Lehigh University where he will pursue a degree in behavioral neuroscience.

Salutatorian, Joshua Matthew Blair, the son of Justin and Cristina Blair of Easton, PA. He began attending Faith Christian School in grade eight after attending Shawnee Elementary School and Lehigh Christian Academy. Josh played soccer for the varsity team at Faith Christian for three years. Josh is an active member in the National Honor Society, having served a year term as treasurer and a year term as president. He has served as his class treasurer during his junior and senior years, and as student council treasurer during his senior year. When he has free time, he enjoys spending it doing outdoor activities, reading, and hanging out with friends. An active member of Boy Scouts Troop 29, he has earned his Eagle Scout rank, among many other achievements. He attends Cornerstone Church in Easton, PA. His favorite Bible verse is Matthew 10:39. In the fall of 2021, he will be attending Geneva College where he will pursue a major in mechanical engineering and he plans to continue his education post graduation.
