Sister Mary Alice Kane Serving Students 57 Years

By Senator Scavella

PEN ARGYL - It was an absolute honor to congratulate Sister Mary Alice Kane with a Senate Citation, upon her retirement as principal at Notre Dame Elementary School. Sister dedicated her life and career to serving students in the Diocese of Scranton for 57 years.

Her career included roles as both an educator and administrator, culminating in the last 33 years as principle of Notre Dame. Sister's legacy is one that is defined by her devotion to fully integrate Catholic faith and values with academic excellence. She was completely dedicated to the mission of Catholic education to ensure each child achieves his or her God-given potential.

Sister, I am eternally grateful for your example of servant leadership to the children who attended Notre Dame over the many decades.
