completed within 24 hours after reaching HNL's state-of-the-art reference laboratory in the Lehigh Valley. When patients sign up for MyHNLAccess, a free patient portal, they can easily view their results on their computer, smartphone or other mobile devices and receive a text message when results are available.

HNL Lab Medicine offers self-pay options that may be an economical choice for patients without insurance or for those who participate in high-deductible health plans. An additional convenience is the ability for patients to order many tests online through their direct access service, Lab Tests Direct, at www.HNLlabtestsdirect.com.

HNL Lab Medicine accepts all insurance plans and will directly bill a patient's primary insurance company. HNL Lab Medicine has a patient-friendly billing policy and offers payment plans and online billing support services.

About HNL Lab Medicine

Operating for over 20 years, HNL Lab Medicine is a leading multi-regional, full-service medical laboratory providing testing and related services to physician offices, hospitals, long-term care facilities, employers and industrial accounts. HNL Lab Medicine has more than 50 patient service centers in Pennsylvania and works with more than 10 hospital systems, including Lehigh Valley Health Network. Each year, HNL Lab Medicine generates more than 60 million clinical and anatomic pathology results for approximately 3 million patients and 12,000 healthcare providers. The company employs more than 1,000 employees including 35 board-certified pathologists and scientific directors and more than 400 certified lab scientists and phlebotomists working together to provide high-quality, advanced diagnostic testing. Pen Argyl Summer Tennis Program

By Carol Hauspurg, M.Ed., USPTA, PSIA
PAHS Girl's Head Tennis Coach

PENARGYL - The coaches of the PAHS Tennis Teams are offering free tennis lessons during June and July for students enrolled in the PAASD, grades 6-12. The sessions for June are Mondays and Saturdays 10-11:30 a.m. and Wednesdays 5-6:30, weather permitting. The July dates are Mondays 11, 18, and 24; Wednesdays July 6, 13, and 20; Saturdays, July 9, 16, 23.

The purpose of the program is to grow both the girls' and boys' high school teams. The coaches are especially looking for girls and boys entering the 9th grade. No tennis experience is necessary, tennis racquets are available for students. All students must wear sneakers that lace up and bring their own water. For additional information contact Coach Carol Hauspurg 610-216-1717 or chauspurg.tennis@gmail.com.
