Warren County Wanderings

Starting July 6, 2022

"We might think we're nurturing our garden, but of course it's our garden that is really nurturing us." – Jenny Uglow, English biographer, historian, critic and publisher.

This little guy knows Blairstown Farmers' Market is serving up the good stuff, including his very own Grown in Warren/Explore Warren County swag bag! You can snag one of your own (while supplies last) with purchase at other local farmers markets including Hackettstown, Washington Borough, and Phillipsburg - opening this weekend at Shappell Park.

Check out opening night of RENT at Century Stage Company this week while Country Gate Players is introducing a movie matinee series happening every Sunday in July with discussion and popcorn. Barefoot Grape Stomping is back this month with two opportunities to get in the mushy fun. And the county's heritage museums are open this Sunday, complete with knowledgeable staff ready to answer your questions. In addition to its usual concert series - this week's performer is Na'Bodach - Shippen Manor is featuring a new lecture series.

And so much more! Read on, and Happy Wanderings!
