

Slate Belt History From The Archives of Donald Jones

Exclusively in the Blue Valley Times

This is the Mazza building on downtown Broadway. You will probably never see another one like it. Unique, unusual, different. All these words apply to A one of a kind building. Copper facade, lion head corbels, Fancy brick work in a patterned frieze, windows highlighted in concrete Arches. The building of a yellow, beige brick makes it stand out among all others. When downtown take time to finally look at the Mazza building. Note....The word building is not spelled wrong, there was a time when the "v" and the "u" could be used.
