Old Home Week Celebrations

By State Rep. Ann Flood

BATH - This past Sunday marked the beginning of Old Home Week in Bath!

Old Home Week gives us the opportunity to come together as a community, learn our history and celebrate how far we have come! This event has not taken place in over 100 years, so it has truly been a memorable occasion.

I even had the opportunity to sign the poster that will be framed and displayed in borough hall at the conclusion of the week.

For more information on Old Home Week festivities, which wrap up today/Friday, visit the borough's website here.
