New Hands-on Learning Opportunity Announced

By Cheryl Statham

BANGOR - The Slate Belt Heritage Center announces a new hands-on learning program that will begin in September. The program is for any student in third to sixth grade and will be held the second Saturday of every month from September to June, at the Heritage Center.

The first class, teaching Slate Engraving, will be held on September 11. Participants will leave with a finished slate coaster, using engraving techniques taught by Victoria Ross. The fee for this class is $30, and will have a maximum of 6 students.

The October 9 class will teach basic wheatweaving techniques, and all participants will leave with three simple projects. The fee is $30 and will have a maximum of 10 students.

Registration for all classes may be made by calling the Center at 610-599-4993. Future classes will be listed on the Heritage Center's Facebook page.

Story Hour For Pre-school Children

By BML

PEN ARGYL - The Blue Mountain Community Library will once again be offering Story Hour to pre-school children. The Fall Program will be held at Weona Park under the large pavilion on alternate Wednesdays in September, October and November, weather permitting. The dates are Sept. 15 and 29; Oct. 13 and 27; and Nov. 10. The programs will begin at 10:30 am and consist of two stories, singing and rhythm sticks, and a craft.

The programs are free to all, but a reservation must be made by the Monday before the program in order that we will have a craft kit for each child. Call the Library at 610-863-3029 to make a reservation.
