Awards for Outstanding County Residents

By Michael Ortoski

NORTHAMPTON COUNTY - Northampton County held its third annual festival on Saturday, October 8th at Louise Moore Park. Lamont McClure recognized a number of municipal employees, first responders and residents for the positive impact they have on their communities and the County.

"Northampton County is privileged to have so many outstanding youth, employees and volunteers working to make everyone's life better through their dedication to their community," says Lamont McClure. "It is a great honor to recognize these citizens for their service to our county."
