100% FOR OUR FAMILIES & QUALITY OF LIFE

As a father, Marine veteran, businessman and township Commissioner, John is the change we need to bring commonsense and our priorities to the State Senate.

PUTTING OUR JOBS FIRST:

Stop job-crushing regulations, support energy Independence and stand with our workers

PROTECTING TAXPAYERS:

Cut township debt and worked to control property taxes - inflation is costing families too much

SUPPORTING PUBLIC SAFETY:

Ensure our police have the tools and training to do their jobs and keep us safe

PRIORITIZING OUR STUDENTS:

Give parents more control and catch-up kids who have fallen behind at school

BACKING STRONG REFORMS:

Supports voter ID, work for real property tax relief and end the politician's perks

By Matt Provence

(Schnecksville, Pa.) — Eastern Pennsylvania’s most spirited holiday family tradition returns when Lehigh Valley Zoo and Christmas Décor host the ninth-annual Winter Light Spectacular (WLS), presented by Service Electric TV & Communications and sponsored by Members 1st Federal Credit Union. The popular event is scheduled for 38 dates this season, spanning from Friday, Nov. 11, through Sunday, Jan 1. Tickets go on sale 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 12, at winterlightspectacular.com.

This year’s edition kicks off with a pair of special offers for Opening Weekend (Nov. 11-13). Opening Night is on Veterans Day – so any veteran or active military member presenting either a valid Veterans or Military ID Card at the gate will receive one free admission. Additionally, there is a $5 discount for any Adult, Child, VIP Adult or VIP Child ticket purchased online to attend Friday, Saturday or Sunday when using promo code SECTV22.

Located at LV Zoo in Schnecksville, Pa., WLS is the Zoo’s largest annual fundraiser and was featured by USA Today in “Holiday light displays worth traveling for across America.”

In addition to 1.2 million lights – a total more than any other Pennsylvania attraction – WLS features classic holiday scenes, numerous photo opportunities, multiple fire pits, hot chocolate and so many other holiday treats. There will also be live performances every night featuring a popular princess (Elsa, Anna, Belle, Cinderella). Additionally, for the first time since the pandemic, Santa Claus will be back and available for picture packages during select time frames every event date through Dec. 23.

Please visit winterlightspectacular.com or follow the Zoo on Facebook for daily WLS updates, promotions, contests, weather cancellations and so much more.
