

Bangor Octoberfest

By Michael Ortoski

BANGOR - Bob Ross (AKA Bangor mayor Brooke Kersner) greeted everyone as the entered the Bangor park for the Octoberfest event this past weekend. Normally a 2 day event but rain shortened it to just a Sunday event.

Lots of fun and games for the kids all decked out in there costumes ranging from Zombie cheerleaders, large size dinosaur, scary ware wolf and a cute little ladybug.

Pumkin decorating and scarecrow stuffing were in full swing with a chance to win $100!

The train rides were rolling' all day with all seats full. During the ride passengers got to see the decorations along the 2 lap trip done by different groups including the scouts.

For the Adults there was a wine tent by Clever Girl Winery, beer tent by Allengheny Brewery and food for all by Little Creek BBQ and Dinky's Ice Cream.

Sponsors were: Bangor Borough; Dave Ceraul Law Office; Recovery Revolution; Fulton Bank; Fidelity Bank; Slicing Tech.

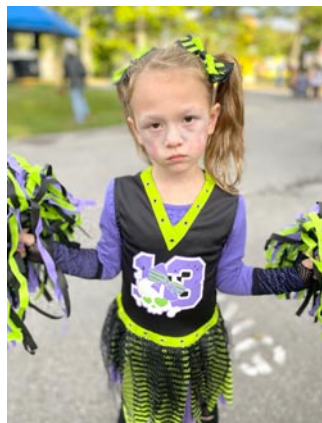

Bob Ross (AKA Bangor mayor Brooke Kersner)

First place in the 6 mos - 2 year category was Kennedy Brown who received $25 gift card.

Zombie cheerleaders

the Ladies that make it all happen

The hungry little catapillar

