Two Young Leaders Earn Eagle Scout Rank

By State Rep. Ann Flood

On Saturday, I had the honor of attending a joint Eagle Scout Court of Honor for Marcus and Eliza Neistadt, where I presented each of them with an official House citation recognizing their achievement of earning the rank of Eagle Scout.

Marcus, a member of Troop 44 in Bushkill Township and Troop 48B at Hope Church in Wind Gap, earned the honor through a service project that rebuilt the shower house and refurbished the bathrooms at the Northampton County 4-H Center.

Eliza, a member of Troop 48G at Hope Church, completed her Eagle Scout project at Equi-librium, a nonprofit therapeutic horse barn serving children and adults with special needs. Her work included repointing stone walls and building posts for an obstacle course that helps riders develop fine motor skills.

Earning the rank of Eagle Scout reflects years of dedication, leadership, and service. Congratulations to Marcus and Eliza on this well-deserved achievement and the positive impact they have made in our community!

Looking for a Career in Law Enforcement?

By State Rep. Ann Flood

The Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) is accepting applications from people interested in a rewarding career in public service as a state trooper.

Applicants must have a high school diploma or GED certificate and a valid driver's license from any state. They must be at least 20 years old at the time of application, and they must be at least 21 years old and cannot have reached age 40 upon entry into the PSP academy.

Applications for the current cadet hiring cycle should be submitted via the Commonwealth's employment website by Nov. 27.

For more information on becoming a state trooper, including applicant requirements and job benefits, visit PATrooper.com.
