Fr. DeNisco Council of the Knights of Columbus

By Michael Ortoski

BANGOR - On October 22, the Fr. DeNisco Council (#3862) of the Knights of Columbus located in Bangor PA, hosted speakers from the Keystone Warriors, Paul Spurgin, executive director and Krissy Dunkle, Operations Manager. At this meeting, it was our pleasure to present this organization with a donation of $800 raised through our summer car washes. Brothers Bill Hutnik and Joe DeFranco coordinated our car wash program making this donation possible.

The Keystone Warriors is a non-profit, 501 (c)(3) organization located in Eastern Pennsylvania that primarily aids our post-9/11/2001 enlisted men and women from all branches of the United States Military in dealing with the often difficult transition to daily civilian life. They provide a wide range of direct assistance to veterans and their families tailored to their specific needs including groceries, financial assistance, and in some cases, transportation, furniture and even housing.
