The Bach Choir of Bethlehem will spend the next several weeks rehearsing and then videotaping its first ever virtual Christmas Concert this year, titled Opening Up Our Hearts: The Music and Inspiration of Christmas. Combining seasonal music with the spoken word of poetry and sacred texts, the Choir will present this program taped in Nazareth and Bethlehem free to all who register online to view it. In a year that has left so many feeling isolated and apart from each other, the concert will offer people a way to "gather" friends and family near and far who are also attending the "Watch Party" as they open up their own hearts through the words and music of this beautiful concert. The concert is free and open to all but viewers must register online to receive a link to view. It will be available through The Choir's YouTube channel and facebook page. More information is available at <https://bach.org/event/christmas/>. Free will donations to help offset the cost of production gratefully received!

OVER $51,000 AVAILABLE FOR ARTS PROGRAMMING IN 2021

WINTER LIGHT SPECTACULAR BACK FOR 35 DATES STARTING NOV. 13

Timed-Ticketing is a New Feature for Safety Protocol and to Improve Traffic/Parking Flow (Schnecksville, Pa.) —Lehigh Valley Zoo and Christmas Décor will host the seventh-annual Winter Light Spectacular (WLS), presented by Service Electric TV & Communications, for 35 dates this season from Friday, Nov. 13, through Saturday, Jan 2. Tickets are on sale now at winterlightspectacular.com. Located at the LV Zoo in Schnecksville, Pa., WLS is the Zoo's largest annual fundraiser and was featured in by USA Today in "Holiday light displays worth traveling for across America." In addition to 1.2 million lights – a total more than any other Pennsylvania attraction – WLS features a pair of reindeer, classic holiday scenes, family photo opportunities, multiple fire pits, hot chocolate and so many other holiday delights. There will also be live performances every night featuring princesses Anna & Elsa, Belle and Cinderella. Revenue from the event supports animal conservation projects and programs at the LV Zoo.
 New for 2020 is a timed-ticketing system set for two-hour visits -- part of the Zoo's new safety protocol to comply with state-mandated capacity restrictions. This component will also benefit the guest experience by greatly improving traffic flow into the Zoo, as well as enhancing parking availability. Masks are required at all times while inside the Zoo unless at designated food and beverage areas.
