When it comes to housing,

little things shouldn't make a difference.

If you have children and a landlord refuses to rent to you, requires a higher security deposit, limits the use of facilities, or says you can only live in certain areas of a housing complex... that could be discrimination. And housing discrimination is against the law.

cards, write checks, and visit the Merchants Bank offices. In the coming weeks, Fidelity Bank will provide ongoing communication about the transition and integration to their organization and services.

Who will lead the new company?
Daniel J. Santaniello, President and CEO of Fidelity Bank, will lead the new combined bank. Rocco Del Vecchio will remain on the team for the next year to insure a smooth transition and to assist wherever possible. There will be two representatives on the Fidelity Board of Directors, including Richard M. Hotchkiss, a 38 year member of our board and current Chairman.

When Can I Start to Use Additional Offices in Lackawanna & Luzerne Counties?
Anticipate the full integration of systems to be completed by the second quarter 2020, at which time all offices in Lackawanna and Luzerne Counties will be available to clients. For now, and until further notice, please use your current bank office.

Will My Deposits Still Be Insured?
Fidelity Bank is an FDIC insured bank, and all deposits will continue to be insured up to $250,000.

What Happens to the Bankers of Merchants Bank?
Since the Banks operate in different markets, there will be no disruption to your banker relationships.

Is There Anything Else I Need to Know?
Fidelity Bank will remain in close communication with Merchants Bank clients during the integration of the two banks; however, no action on your end is required.

How Can I Find Out More?
If you have any additional questions, please call your relationship manager. We will be posting ongoing information about the merger through our website.
